Now parties entertain the small,
And balls delight the great ;
Go when you will, to one, to all,
But don't mistake the date.

Now is the winter of our deep disgust
Made glorious deluge by the pipes that "bust";
Then gaily to the rescue plumbers come,
After much waiting, and proceed to "plumb."

A good offer should

Why cast such cruel dampers

On pretty picnics, and,

against all wishes,

Set the cold ducks

a-swimming—

in the dampers,

And volunteer,

unashed, to wash

the dishes!

In buying horses and taking a wife, shut your
